Only True Reform.

The only reform that really reforms is the reform that comes from the heart of the individual. Not all the king's laws nor all the king's statutes can reform an evil community.—Duke de Boulogne.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe-nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. How ever, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

A Vermont Putterer

There used to be in every place Some pretty nice old feller. With good-sized feet and small-sized face. And manners mild and meiler; He'd make a fancy parsnip bed. Or wooden stamp for butter— He liked to do jest little jobs. He lived to kinder putter.

He had no bold and deep designs. No Caesar Forgia flavor; He worked along his little lines Belike a steel engraver; You never heard him rip or tear. Or mumble, growl or mutter. For business never got so slack He couldn't poke and putter. He didn't have no wish to cling To goods that wasn't hisen; He never did the smallest thing 'Twould send a fly to prison; But he could trim a gooseberry bush. Or fix a leaky gutter— He liked the fussiest work the best. Jest anyway to putter.

Most everything he ever did, He took a day to do it. Like fitting on a firkin lid And tacking tack nails through it; He'd have a dozen tools around And make a first-class clutter. But then, for that was he ordained, His soul was born to putter.

If he hag won a woman's dress, I believe I'm right in saying He'd been a "case," and nothing less. To tat and do crocheting; His hook, it would have set bazars And Floral Halls a-flutter— He would have made a coking wife, The man who lived to putter.
